

The background image is a composite of several elements related to spirits competition. In the top left, a glass is filled with coffee beans. In the bottom left, a glass contains a golden liquid, likely whiskey. In the center, a grey foam tray holds several small vials, each with a white label indicating a sample ID. One vial is shown separately in the bottom right. A large, faint watermark in the top right corner features the letters 'S' and 'A' separated by a diagonal line, with the text 'INTERNATIONAL SPIRITS AWARDS' and 'COMPETITION' around it.
